NUMBER 40.

WOLFE COUNTY.

Daysboro Doings.

Ye scribe went to Campton Saturday. Matt Amyx was in Daysboro Sunday.

Miss Jane Little was attending church here Sunday.

Holly Wilson was in Daysboro one day last week.

Leander Brooks was in Daysboro one day last week.

Jim Anderson, of Gilmore, was in Daysboro Sunday.

Herbert Nickell and wife were in Daysboro Sunday.

A. B. Kash has been attending church here for a few days.

Squire Nickell, of Caney, was visiting in Daysboro Sunday.

Mrs. James Wilson, of Sellers, was in Daysboro Sunday.

Prof. A. V. Austin still has good attendance at his school.

John E. Nickell has been leading the choir during the meeting.

Jesse Oldfield was in Daysboro on business one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tauld Nickell were attending church here Sunday.

Buchanan Rose, of Grassy, was attending church here Sunday.

Jim Lacy went to Hazel Green today to have some teeth extracted.

Miss Maud Taulbee has been suffering with the mumps for a few days.

Uncle Bill Kash has been visiting in this neighborhood for a few days.

Mrs. J. N. Lacy, who has been sick, we are glad to say is able to be about again.

Hon. A. F. Byrd passed through Daysboro Sunday on his way home from Salyersville.

Miss Rebecca Willson, one of Morgan county's most charming belles, was in Daysboro Sunday.

Burnie Finch, of Hazel Green, came up to church Sunday and after meeting went straight home.

Miss Fannie, the handsome daughter of Joshua DeBusk, of Grassy creek, was in Daysboro Sunday.

John E. Brooks will leave today for an extended visit to friends in Powell and Menefee counties.

Misses Maud Wilson, America and Eliza Nickell and a Miss Gose were pleasant visitors in our little town Sunday.

The meeting that has been in progress for a few days closed Sunday with one immersion and several reclaimed. Bro. Lacy will go to Magoffin to hold a meeting.

J. Miles Nickell and wife were attending church here Sunday. Miles called us off to one side and said, "Allie, my wife, wants to read THE HERALD for 12 months."

Mort Pieratt, of Hazel Green, was in Daysboro Sunday. If Mort had not been here before we would have thought he was lost, for after church he was seen going down Grassy.

Jim Linden, of Gilmore, was in Daysboro Sunday and informed us that he lost a very valuable hand grip somewhere on Lacy creek last week. The grip contains a green dress. Why he was carrying a dress we can't say just yet.

Alvin Oldfield and Kelly DeBusk came up from the Jamb's Sunday, and some one informed us that Kelly did not enjoy the meeting very well, as he was expecting to see a Bishop there. They only keep bishops in the Methodist church, Kelley.

C. B. Amyx will leave Thursday for Mt. Sterling, and from there, accompanied by Judge Lewis Apperson, will go to Columbus, Ohio, to attend to their suit, which will come up the 14th of this month. Amyx and Apperson were sued in 1886 by John Montgomery, jr., of that city, claiming that they had cheated and defrauded him out of $150,000 worth of property, situated in Columbus, O., and Huntington, W. Va.

Feb. 8. CHARLIE.

Tolliver Topics.

Felson Mannin, of Omer, was visiting in Tolliver last week.

Miss Emma Brewer, of Big Branch, is very low with lung trouble.

C. M. Elkins, of Salyersville, was visiting his parents this week.

George Lockhart, of Maytown, was in Tolliver this week on a trading expedition.

Elbert Sample, of Rothwell, passed through Tolliver Sunday, en route to Ezel.

J. B. McNabb has just returned from Rothwell and says the roads are in a bad condition.

Mrs. Maggie Elkins, of Tolliver, has been visiting her father, John Day, of Maytown, this week.

Alex Ratcliff and wife, of Stillwater, were over to see W. A. Oldfield and wife Saturday and Sunday.

Willie Clark is having the brush cut off the hill next the store, which will beautify the scene very much.

Ye scribe has witnessed two sad scenes, indeed, since the last writing to THE HERALD. On last Friday, at the home of A. B. Landrum, was interred the casket that contained the body of Mrs. James Landrum, our dear cousin. She died after a brief illness, and leaves a host of friends and relatives to mourn her loss, and on Friday evening, Alonzo Clark, a citizen of Tolliver, died after a very brief illness, and was buried at the cemetery of John Cox on Sunday. The burial was attended by a large crowd of relatives and friends. He leaves a wife and four little children, who have the sympathy of the entire community.

Feb. 8. SHINER.

Gilmore Gleanings.

Cruey and Spencer have finished hauling logs on the farm of J. H. Vest.

C. W. Johnson has just returned from a preaching tour in Menefee county. The writer has been on the sick list ever since he came home from circuit court.

Wm. H. Banks and wife have separated by mutual consent. Cause not known.

Elder W. T. Havens, of Menefee county, is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Elders F. P. Wilson and Gillaspie preached at this place the first Sunday to a well behaved congregation.

Mrs. R. M. Haddix, who has been sick for some time, and in a critical condition, we are glad to state is slowly improving.

Mr. McNamara, the sewing machine repairer of Bourbon county, has been in this vicinity about ten days repairing machines, and evidently knows his business. He repaired a machine for the writer 7 years ago, which continued to do good work and did not show any sign of failure, but still we had him give it another overhauling.

Feb. 8. UNCLE REMUS.

Lee City Lilacs.

News is scarce this week.

Miss Montie Fallen is on the sick list this week.

Curry Patrick, of Johnson, was in town Sunday.

C. B. Allen went to Hazel Green Friday on business.

A. M. Nickell went to Hazel Green Saturday on business.

Miss May Nickell called on her friend, Miss Mary Taulbee Sunday.

James Wilson, of this place, attended church at Daysboro Saturday.

D. N. Wells sold to John M. Rose three yoke of oxen at a fair price.

Miss Sallie Cruey, of Lacy creek, enrolled at school here Monday last.

P. W. Davis, who is attending school at West Liberty, called on ye scribe the 1st inst.

Miss Nora Cruey, who is attending school here, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, of Lacy creek.

Robert Anderson has gone to Jackson to meet Capt. Broas, in the interest of the proposed line of railroad from that place to Walnut Grove.

We stated in our last letter that the school at this place would give an entertainment on the 10th inst., but it will be on next Thursday night instead.

J. L. Spurlock, of Bell county, passed through here Friday on his way to his new home above town. We welcome Mr. Spurlock among us as a good citizen.

Prof. J. W. Taulbee, of Daysboro, and ye scribe had a shouting contest Thursday evening, and am very sorry to say ye scribe got benton, but not very bad. Prof. is a capital marksman.

Born, on the 1st inst., to the wife of Wm. Clair, a 9 pound boy. Bill says one more Democrat is added to the list; also, on the 2nd inst., to the wife of Samuel Allen, a fine boy. Sam is very proud of his little Democrat.

Success to THE HERALD and its many readers.

S. H. Swango is able to be up and walk about some.

J. M. Taylor is working for C. C. Cardwell, enlarging his storehouse.

W. M. Combs, of Jackson, has been in our midst the past week looking after his farming interests.

Mrs. Eliza Moore has gone to Lincoln county to live with her son-in-law, Tom Peck, who moved there last fall.

Ramey Smith and T. F. Dunn have returned home from Winchester, where they have been for the last three months.

Miss Liddie Chambers, who has been confined to her bed with inflammatory rheumatism for some time, is able to go about the house again.

Jailer I. W. Combs, of Campton, was in our neighborhood last Saturday and rented his Seminary farm to Isaac Tolson; he also bought two head of hogs.

Squire J. W. Chambers has returned from Richmond, where he had a suit in the circuit court against the railroad

Rev. J. R. Word preached a most excellent sermon at this place Sunday.

Dock Stamper passed through here going to town with a basket, gun and ax handle.

Rev. J. R. Word and wife and Mrs. Ellen Swango were the guests of Ed Cecil Sunday.

R. D. Motley starts this morning to Rothwell after his long looked for corn crusher.

Hugh Blankenship has begun moving to the Frank Havens farm, at the mouth of Grassy.

Dr. W. L. Gevedon will preach at this place Saturday at 11 o'clock and Sunday following at the same hour.

Misses Lillie Havens and Mattie McGuire, two charming belles of the Jamb's, was in this neighborhood Sunday.

Ezel Evolutions.

We have had a week of what I call winter.

T. L. Prater has been very poorly with rheumatism this week.

Harlan Power and wife are visiting at Henry Greenwade's, near Big Caney.

Bernard Walker has gone to Frenchburg to attend to business for his uncle, Frank Prater.

M. H. Power has been building him a sleigh preparing for himself and wife to take a visit, but as the snow is gone they will have to wait a while.

J. L. Power and Wm. Prater are in Magoffin county on business, but will return soon and calculate to go in business in Carter county with Franklin Prater, William's brother.

Willie Barker and wife have moved to the T. L. Prater farm, and we wish them success in their new home. And also success to THE HERALD, is among the sincere wishes of your scribe.

We are having lots of weddings in and around our town. A. T. Pieratt's son, Frank, and Miss Ida Oakley were married yesterday; also, Washington Richie to Miss Sarah Liz Morefield. May all be peace and love with them forever.

Trimble Bend Triakets.

R. M. Wells is quite sick.

Taylor Trimble is on the sick list.

D. S. Trimble was in Hazel Green on business Friday.

Bill Cornett went to Michigan Sunday to see his best girl.

During the past cold spell the boys in the Bend made the rabbits' fur fly.

Robert Trimble will leave for Charleston, Ills., about March 1 to live with his brother Frank the coming year.

Bill Cornett says Michigan is the place for him. Michigan is located about one mile from the top of Beaver hill, and a nice little village.

Charley Trimble, Joe Cornett and Frank Catron, now in the standing army at San Francisco, Cal., say they like to serve Uncle Sam very well.

Joe Hizer had a big grubbing one day last week, and got a fine day's work done. The day closed with a good supper and singing and prayer meeting.

Kelley Trimble and his best girl have played quits, but we don't know what the matter was. Kelley is now at Campton attending school. He is a good old boy.

Nelson Trent sold his farm to Burton Byrd of Brushy fork yesterday for $125. Mr. Byrd will move in the first of March and Mr. Trent, it is said, is going west. We are sorry to lose as good a man as Mr. Trent, but our loss is somebody's gain. Mr. Byrd will be welcomed in his stead.

I was at Michigan yesterday and was told that the Railroad company would soon build a depot at the top of Beaver hill. There are about 200 men at work on the road all the time, and timber is getting to be in big demand here. The right of way could be easily secured through the Bend for the extension of the road.

John L. Thomas has taught a very fine writing school, and with general satisfaction. The ladies who carried off the ribbons were Miss Mary Kilgore, first for best penmanship; Rosa Kilgore, first for improvement in writing; Mary Kilgore got two best for improvement, and Florence Kribbs got two best for improvement, but I think that was a mistake.

A Cure for Hog Cholera.

The government has spent thousands of dollars to discover a remedy for hog cholera, and hundreds of recipes have been published as cures, but so far they have all failed in satisfactory results. THE HERALD has just heard of recent experiments, however, which demonstrates beyond doubt that a remedy that can be relied upon in every case has been discovered right here at home. Calomel administered dry or in slop, according to the size of the hog and severity of the symptoms, say from one-fourth to one teaspoonful to the hog, will cure any case. Mrs. Jane Lacy, of Lacy creek, had two hogs down with cholera and so bad they could not move. Thinking that one of them was as good as dead anyhow, she put a teaspoonful of calomel on its tongue one afternoon and left it to its fate. Next morning her patient was up and rooting with as much energy as any hog. She then administered the same dose to the other, which was by that time as bad or worse than the first, and it too got well. Mrs. Sebron Trimble, of the same neighborhood, used calomel with the same good results, and states that out of several sick hogs and shoats she did lose a single one. She also used it for chicken cholera, by mixing it with corn meal dough, and effectually checked it. Mrs. Fred Day of this place, also saved a shoat which had cholera by promptly administering calomel. These ladies are all reliable, and their experience shows that calomel properly administered is an infallible cure for hog cholera and a preventive and cure for cholera in chickens. The size of the hog and the stage of the disease will indicate the dose to be given, and chickens affected with cholera should be given a teaspoonful to the dozen, mixed in corn meal dough. THE HERALD is so thoroughly convinced that calomel is the long sought cure for hog cholera that we should like for every farmer in Kentucky to try it when occasion offers.

MONTHLY SUFFERING.

Thousands of women are troubled at monthly intervals with pains in the head, back, breasts, shoulders, sides hips and limbs. But they need not suffer.

These pains are symptoms of dangerous derangements that can be corrected. The menstrual function should operate painlessly.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

makes menstruation painless, and regular. It puts the delicate menstrual organs in condition to do their work properly. And that stops all this pain. Why will any woman suffer month after month when Wine of Cardui will relieve her? It costs $1.00 at the drug store. Why don't you get a bottle to-day?

For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. ROZENA LEWIS, of Danville, Tenn., says: "I was troubled at monthly intervals with terrible pains in my head and back, but have been entirely relieved by Wine of Cardui."

THE LOUD BILL.

To Tax Newspapers for the Benefit of the Railroads and Express Companies.

A short time ago I sent out circulars to newspaper publishers in nearly every congressional district in the United States, requesting them to aid in a concerted movement to defeat the Loud bill. Many of them have answered my circular stating that they had written to their congressmen and offering their services for any further opposition that would be likely to be effective.

Below we reprint articles from the New York Herald and the New York World, showing that the entire deficiency could be saved without attacking legitimate newspapers, simply by stopping the frauds:

From the New York Herald.]
New York, Dec. 27th.—A Washington special to the Herald says: The United States government is annually being robbed of between $6,000,000 and $8,000,000. The postal department is the loser and the railroads transporting the mails are the gainers. Vast swindling schemes, it is alleged, are continually carried on when the time comes to weigh the mails prior to signing contracts for the four years next to come. These schemes are protected by the law. Loop-holes making them possible have been found to exist, but the government has been powerless to check the abuse.

This fraud in connection with the transportation of the mails has led to an increasing annual postal deficit when there should be a surplus. For hauling 100 pounds of mail one mile every day for a year the government pays $42.75. For greater weights the rate per pound rapidly diminishes. To ascertain these weights the country is divided into four divisions, each of which is taken up every four years. The postoffice department sends out men, who travel for one month on each postal car in the country, weighing the mails and noting the distances they are carried. On the results the rates of pay to the railroads for the next four years are based. Here are some of the methods used, according to officials of the postoffice department: A and B are two towns, 100 miles apart. Midway between them a branch road leads off to one side. Forty-seven months out of the forty-eight the railroad drops the mail for the branch road at the junction. During the time of the weighing the train from A carries these mails, say, thirty miles past the junction, until it meets the train from B, in which it transfers them to B, and where they are carried back to the junction. In this way it gets the credit for carrying this mail for 110 miles at $42.75 per 100 pounds.

Another method widely pursued is to make an arrangement with big patent medicine concerns by which the roads pay the postage on their advertisements if they send them during the weighing months. As many as fourteen carloads of circulars made up as newspaper matter have been sent through the mails at a single shipment by one large advertiser. A circular may be estimated at forty thousand pounds. This second class matter then pays postage at one cent per pound, $400 per carload and $5000 for the fourteen carloads. This the railroad pays.

From the New York World.]

STOP THE POSTAL THEFT.
The remedy for the postal deficiency is plain. It is not by cutting off postal facilities, but by stopping the steal.

The World has set forth all the facts. Free delivery pays for itself almost everywhere. In great cities it yields a large revenue as clear profit. To curtail it would be to cut off revenue, not to save expense. But the railroads swallow the department out of ten millions or more every year, and the department deliberately permits them to do so.

Stop that steal and the postal service will pay for itself. And the way to stop it is perfectly obvious and perfectly simple.

The government seems willing to wink at these frauds, provided they can get enough out of publishers of newspapers and cheap books to cover the deficiency in the postal revenues. But if the department would see that the present laws were honestly administered there would be no deficiency, and, consequently, no occasion to attack legitimate publications, inflicting unnecessary burdens, both upon publishers, and their readers.

There are about 10,000 newspapers in the United States. If each newspaper is compelled to pay $1 extra postage each week, on sample copies, copies sold to advertisers and purchasers, and mailed from the office of publication, and on returns from news agents, this will amount to but $1,000,000 or about one-eighth of the frauds which the government knowingly allow railroads to profit by.

But railroads are organized, and news paper publishers are not. Then also the great express monopolies will be largely benefited and the railroads will get a share of the profit from this traffic so that two great sets of corporations, that wield immense political power will be placated by the passage of the Loud bill. "Never mind the newspapers."

Although the newspaper publishers are not organized they wield the political power of the country and if they unite against this unjust and oppressive bill, they can defeat it.

The report of the committee on the Loud bill says the government pay an average of 8 cents per pound or $160 per ton for transporting the mails. The Loud bill will greatly reduce the weight of mails but the railroads will have their contracts renewed for four years before the bill goes into effect, and while the increase of postage from 1 cent per

IN MEMORY OF A GIFT.

I love this gift because it came
From one whose heart is free from stain;
Where art or guile can never glow,
And pure as beautiful new laid snow.

I love this gift because it came
From one whose life will true remain,
Till death shall close those starry eyes,
And angels wait thee to the skies.

This dear, dear gift, will ever bring
One memory sweet in future's spring;
A treasure oft my eyes shall greet,
Though you and I may never meet.

This gift from me shall never part,
'Tis linked in friendship to my heart;
A treasure which, for worlds of fame,
Could I forget from whom it came?

SAM WILSON.

pound to 8 cents will exclude hundreds of thousands of pounds, the government will save nothing but will go on for four years paying the railroad $160 per ton for mail never carried. The same matter, however, (especially books) will be sent by express or freight, which will still further increase the profits of the railroads beside adding millions of dollars to the profits of the express companies.

The friends of the railroad are trying to stifle the opposition of the country press by saying that the bill will cut off the fraudulent publications which are a damage to our business. It is the duty of the department and of congress to do this, and it can be done just as effectually without inflicting any unjust tax or burdens upon honest newspapers. They admit that the burden of one cent postage on every sample copy will ruin hundreds of papers. Then how can it be a benefit to others, which barely escape ruin? It will simply cut off all that portion of subscription and advertising patronage which we receive through sample copies. But it is not at all necessary to attack legitimate publications.

The government can stop all the frauds without the aid of the Loud bill.

The government can cut off all illegitimate publications without attacking the regular country press.

The government can wipe out every dollar of deficiency without putting any extra tax on country newspapers.

The report of the committee on this bill is an ingenious document, showing many methods by which more money can be extorted from publishers, but not one suggestion as to stopping the frauds by which railroads make from six to eight millions per year.

This bill, unjust and oppressive, will certainly become a law unless newspaper publishers make a determined fight against it, and I hope each one who receives this circular will send a vigorous protest against it to the senators and congressmen from his district and state, and will awaken his readers to the fact that cheap books are to be taxed to swell the coffers of express companies and cover the frauds perpetrated by railroads.

Please to act at once, as it is uncertain how soon the bill may come up for argument.

Every newspaper publisher should demand that the frauds on the postal revenues shall be stopped before any attempt is made to collect the deficiency out of legitimate newspapers.

Write your representatives in congress and United States senators. Also get the members of your state legislature and your county officials to protest against this unjust bill.

Do not fail to keep me informed of all you do to help defeat this unjust, iniquitous bill.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, mention THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD and send your full post-office address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

THE HERALD.

+LOCAL LISTINGS.+

Pain has no show with Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.

Sheriff A. T. Combs was in town yesterday.

Courtney Wilson is down with the measles.

Grant Thomas, of St. Helens, was here last week.

Dave Rose, of Ezel, was a guest of the Day House yesterday.

Will Colvin was in town yesterday interviewing our merchants.

S. S. Combs, of Campton, was here Sunday attending the bedside of his son-in-law, H. F. Pieratt.

Born, to the wife of J. B. Hollon, above Daysboro, Monday, a girl. Dr. Nickell says it is a Democratic girl.

Rev. J. H. Wallin will preach at the Gilmore church Sunday at 11 o'clock in the morning and here at 6:30 in the evening.

Mrs. Lula Pieratt, of West Liberty, and Misses Lizzie Pieratt and Etta Daniels, of Ezel, are visiting Judge Swango and wife.

Miss Alice Willis, of this place, and Miss Lizzie Caskey, of Grassy creek, were pleasant visitors at THE HERALD office on Tuesday.

John M. Rose of this place has about 75 as nice cattle as any ever bought in this market, which he will next week take to Mt. Sterling.

J. Taylor Day returned home Tuesday after an absence of two weeks or more, during which he visited Torrent, Jackson and other places.

THE HERALD man was quite sick Tuesday and Tuesday night, and readers of this paper will therefore please excuse our shortcomings.

Judge Swango celebrated his 52nd birthday Tuesday, and that night some 20 of the young people of the town were treated to ice cream at his house.

CURE rheumatism by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by neutralizing the acid in the blood permanently relieves aches and PAINS.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, John Oakley, near East, Thursday last, Miss Ida Oakley and Elv Frank Pieratt, Elder Jim McCreary officiating.

A protracted meeting of indefinite duration was begun at the Methodist church in this place Sunday. Rev. Peoples, resident pastor at Campton, is assisting Bro. Word.

Now that we have reduced the price of THE HERALD to FIFTY CENTS A YEAR, we shall expect every old subscriber to renew at once, and each bring in one new subscriber.

Mrs. Faulkner, who was last week reported as down with the measles, is still confined to her home. Jimmie Brown, however, another of the sick ones last week, is now up and about.

The honest, debt paying citizen that takes THE HERALD hereafter will pay for it in advance, and receive the paper just so long as he has paid for it, but not another issue after.

J. Mason Ingram, of Mize, Morgan county, has gone to the Indian territory to reside, and will locate in the neighborhood with his brother, Will Tom, who moved out there some years since.

The trustees of this school district will on the 26th inst. let the contract for building a new school house in Hazel Green. The new building is to be 26x50 feet, with a 12 foot room petitioned off.

Born, to the wife of Willie Rice (nee Johnson), at the residence of Frank Johnson, on Lacy creek, Sunday, Feb. 6, a boy. Dr. Nickell reports the above, and glories in the fact that he is likely to grow up a Republican.

Children are more susceptible to cold than grown folks and their constitutions will not permit of quinine or other radical treatment. Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is not only absolutely harmless but is pleasant to the taste and never fails to cure or stop a cold.

The hog cholera cure published elsewhere in today's paper, is alone worth ten times the subscription price of THE HERALD. Tell your neighbors, your friends, everybody about it, and have them subscribe at once, so as to not miss other valuable information THE HERALD will give them during the year.

Subscribers of country papers, very truthfully says the Aurora Bulletin, often allow their subscription to become delinquent through carelessness and yet feel insulted if the paper is stopped or a statement of their delinquency is sent to them. They do not expect any courtesy from metropolitan papers, but the country papers are expected to come on whether they are paid for or not. This is an unjust exaction. Because he is editor of a country newspaper is no reason why a man should carry you year after year. The income from subscription to a newspaper is an important item. Like snow flakes they are individually small, but when aggregated they pile up wonderfully. They should be coming in every day in the year. They must come if the publisher pays his bills, which fall due every month of the year.

Topics for sermons at the Christian church Sunday are, at 11 a. m., "The Nature of His Kingdom"; at 6:30 p. m., "The Two Commissions." Everybody is cordially invited to attend both services, and especially are all members urged to be present. Remember, too, the Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. There were 39 in the Bible class on last Sunday morning. Parents should attend this school and bring their children with them. Parents, why not lead the way and have the children to follow? The following are the officers and teachers of this school: W. O. Mize, W. H. Pieratt, W. H. Cord, Misses Sallie Hord and Mollie James. The school uses the "Lesson Helps," prepared and published by the Christian Publishing Co., St. Louis, Missouri.

F. W. C. Wiggins, traveler for the J. C. Ayer Co., of Lowell, Mass., who was in our town since last issue, is one of the most courteous commercial tourists with whom we ever conversed. An account of his travels up and down the earth in distributing printing and making contracts for the great concern he represents make a very interesting narrative, in the telling of which his conversational powers show him to be no novice. While here he contracted with J. T. Day to handle the many remedies the house puts up, and he himself put up at the Day House, which he thinks is one of the finest hostleries in the mountains of Eastern Kentucky.

At a meeting of the young men of Hazel Green at the Day House on last Friday night, the following officers were unanimously chosen: Robt. Dicken, president, Edward Taulbee, secretary, E. H. James, treasurer. The committee on finance is J. H. Rose, S. H. James, R. B. Kash and E. O. Taulbee. The members and all persons interested in Hazel Green's welfare are requested to meet again on Thursday evening, Feb. 10, at the same place and lend their aid in getting up a brass band and buying the instruments.

E. O. TAULBEE, Sec'y.

Alonzo P. Clark, a well known cattle trader, died at his residence in the Cox mill neighborhood Friday, the 5th inst. He was up and about in the forenoon, though he had been complaining for a day or two, and died about a o'clock, p. m. He had been drinking for several days and among other intoxicants drank five or six bottles of essence of cinnamon, which is thought to have caused his sudden death. He was buried Sunday afternoon.

No more measles at the Home. Why? Because all have had it. The last case is now about well, and will be in school next week. While this was truly an epidemic of measles, yet the work of the school moved steadily on, and now the attendance is the largest in the history of the academy. The total enrollment is within one of the total enrollment of last session. There are forty-seven boarders at the Home and more to come in soon.

Roe Havens on Saturday morning brought to this office an angle worm that he found crawling upon the snow, a chunk of which he was on when viewed at this office. He was as lively as any fishworm we ever saw and many theories have been advanced as reasons for his appearance on the snow. Did any of our readers ever see a worm under similar circumstances?

A few months ago, Mr. Byron Every, of Woodstock, Mich., was badly afflicted with rheumatism. His right leg was swollen the full length, causing him great suffering. He was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The first bottle of it helped him considerably and the second bottle effected a cure. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by J. T. Day.

Dr. F. M. Thomas, of Ezel, was on Saturday night called to see H. F. Pieratt, but owing to other engagements did not arrive until Sunday morning. Dr. Gevedon was also called on Sunday afternoon, but could not get here until Monday. Mr. Pieratt rested well Sunday night and had a better appetite than at any time since his illness.

Tom Lykins, of Walnut Grove, was a guest of the Day House for dinner yesterday, and THE HERALD asked him the news about the railroad. He said he didn't know anything, but that something would be done with regard to the Elkatawa extension to Walnut Grove, and work would begin or the project be abandoned.

Blood and Nerves are very closely related. Keep the blood rich, pure and healthy, with Hood's Sarsaparilla and you will have no nervousness.

Hood's Pills are best after-dinner pills, aid digestion, prevent constipation.

Roe Havens left yesterday afternoon for Morehead.

Missionary Offering.
On the second Lord's day in March the Christian church will make its annual offerings for foreign missions and state missions.

The church has grown much in the grace of giving and this year will show even an increase in this part of the Lord's work. Every member should make an offering, however small it may be. The burden of all missionary work and offerings is carried by those not rich in this world's goods.

Sometimes persons are found who oppose missionary work, especially organized missionary work. Such persons have failed to get the view point of the Christ and his worthy followers, the apostles. The whole system of missionary work by Jesus was one of organization. He knew that "in union there is strength," and so were the churches taught as the record goes. Again, there are some people who seem to think that money does not have any connection with the Lord's work. To such we would suggest that they make a careful, honest, candid study of the new testament and mark every reference to money or its equivalent found. They would be surprised at the result and would become ardent supporters of missionary work. Remember the date for the offering, second Lord's day in March. An offering from every member. WM. H. CORD.

Debate at The Academy.

On the evening of the 22nd inst., four young men from each society will discuss the question—"Washington did more for his country than Lincoln." The affirmative speakers are E. O. Taulbee, John R. Bays, S. H. Nickell and S. S. Elam. The negative speakers are R. K. Nickell, Edgar Jones, Custer Jones and J. Dan Cuning. All who attend will certainly be entertained and profited. The young women of the two societies will edit a paper for the occasion, and Miss Hord and others will furnish some good musical selections. After the debate a new feature will be introduced, so be ready for it. The patrons of the school and all friends of education should attend these debates. Your presence will encourage both pupils and teachers. If you are interested in the progress of the school, and if your sympathy is with the young men and women, show it by being present upon all such occasions, if at all possible.

Hon. W. O. Mize returned home Saturday after an absence of several weeks, much of which he spent in Lexington with his son Carl, who is attending the commercial college of Kentucky university.

The condition of Henry Pieratt was yesterday evening reported as more favorable than for some days, but he does not take any nourishment and apparently has no appetite.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure
Cures a Prominent Attorney.

M. E. C. PHELPS, the leading pension attorney of Belfast, N. Y., writes: "I was discharged from the army on account of ill health, and suffered from heart trouble ever since. I frequently had fainting and smothering spells. My form was bent as a man of 50. I constantly wore an overcoat, even in summer, for fear of taking cold. I could not attend to my business. My rest was broken by severe pains about the heart and left shoulder. Three years ago I commenced using Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, notwithstanding I had used so much patent medicine and taken drugs from doctors for years without being helped. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure restored me to health. It is truly a wonderful medicine and it affords me much pleasure to recommend this remedy to everyone."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

An Open Letter.

HAZEL GREEN, KY., December 20, 1897.

MR. ————:
Dear Sir: You will please excuse me for intruding on your valuable time, but as I have not had the pleasure of seeing you for some months past, I thought I would once more (perhaps before death) remind you of a solemn occurrence that took place long, long ago. Now, this is a painful duty for me to perform, and perhaps when you receive this sad intelligence your own heart will be burdened with sorrow. But I should keep you in suspense no longer.

In days past and gone you bought of me goods under a solemn promise that payment would be made in a few days. What on earth is the matter? Are you dead, or still living? If dead, write me, and I will donate the amount to the education of your children. But if still living, fulfill your promise. Call and pay what you owe me, and thereby increase your prospects for the Eternal City. Don't let the devil tempt you any longer. But rise up in your manhood and fulfill the teachings of the Holy Writ,

"Owe No Man anything."

Very respectfully,

H. F. PIERATT.

MAJ. P. P. JOHNSTON

Says He Is Not Fixing Things For His Race For Governor.

Maj. P. P. Johnston, who is now considered by many a full-fledged candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, says a Lexington special to the Courier-Journal, Jan. 29, was found at the office of the state committee here today.

"Have you anything special, Major, on politics or the political outlook?" the Courier-Journal correspondent asked.

"The general assembly is monopolizing public attention now, and it may be prudent for prospective candidates to hold off until we can see 'where we are at.' A man may be a logical candidate under certain conditions, and party success a matter of grave speculation. We have had the advantage of position, with the current setting strong our way, and if we have rest it will continue so. There is such a large independent vote that ill considered action may be irreparable harm."

"Are you doing anything as chairman of the committee?"

"No, absolutely nothing. It has been charged that I have been fixing things for the race for governor, but it is an invention of the enemy. I do not believe in that character of politics. Men who fix things distrust the people, and are distrusted by the people. The politicians who try to govern by fixing things to override the will of the majority are enemies of the party. There is not, I believe, a committeeman of the fifteen hundred and over that would not pronounce the charge false, certainly not one who could say it is true."

"In the formation of the committee I have sought to have men placed on guard who were loyal to the party and who would be fair to every member of it. Those who do not come up to this standard are not worthy of the trust committed to them."

"How do farming and politics go together?"

"Not particularly well. No man, however, has a greater interest in good government than the farmer. But I confess that he is now mainly conspicuous by his absence from the higher places in public life which he adorned in the early days of the republic. The patient, persistent labor required to get a living out of the ground begets habits of frugality and economy, and a sympathy with those who toil that a man without the experience finds it hard to understand."

"I have farmed for more than twenty years, and have occasionally been in politics, though not continuously. I have not made a business of office seeking, nor have I received any pecuniary advantage from office holding. Yes, I will be a candidate if it looks like I could win as the nominee of my party."

Nelson's Hawaiian Hair Elixir.

This is to certify that we handled Nelson's Hawaiian Hair Elixir for ten months, and can truthfully say that the sale of it is phenomenal. We have sold ten times as much of it as of all other hair preparations combined, our sales amounting to over 600 bottles, seven other drug stores in the city handling it at the same time. We consider it by far the best hair preparation on the market.

People's Bible History.

At last the important news comes that the great literary work contributed to by the Rev. William E. Gladstone and his seventeen scholarly confreres has been placed by the publisher on the general book market and is now within the easy reach of everyone in this community. We refer to the People's Bible History. It is well worth while looking this over just to see the great names in all denominations of faith who have been laboring in this notable undertaking and to realize the comprehensive way in which they have carried out the plan of producing a thoroughly complete and modern presentation of the bible in its historical aspects. Whether judged from the literary or typographical point of view, it may very properly be called the most monumental production from the press in recent years. Its value to the reading public is certainly only equaled by the encyclopedias and other great works of reference. There is no book that we know of that has received such general and unqualified approval from the clergy and the press. As the publisher provides the work in so many editions there ought to be no trouble about being suited either as to bindings or payments. Two editions are offered at popular prices, as well as two in a more sumptuous style to suit the more fastidious book-lovers. The most acceptable style for the great majority, however, will undoubtedly be the quarto edition in sixteen parts, bound in stiff paper covers and convenient for easy handling. This is issued especially to bring the work within reach of all classes. As everyone who pretends to have any kind of a good private library, no matter how small, must have the People's Bible History on his shelves, our booksellers will doubtless find a ready sale for it among the thinking people of our midst. Henry O. Shepard, publisher, 212-214 Monroe street, Chicago, Illinois.

Mr. Ward L. Smith, of Fredericks town, Mo., was troubled with chronic diarrhea for over thirty years. He had become fully satisfied that it was only a question of a short time until he would have to give up. He had been treated by some of the best physicians in Europe and America but got no permanent relief. One day he picked up a newspaper and chanced to read an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. He got a bottle of it, the first dose helped him and its continued use cured him. For sale by J. T. Day.

MOUNTAIN NEWSPAPERS.

The Man Who Publishes One Successfully Must Have Hope and Health and a Heart for Any Fate.

An Eastern lecturer in a speech at a Central Kentucky college some days ago made the statement that twenty Kentucky counties were without a newspaper or a printing press. There are about a dozen counties which have no papers. Those which are not so blessed are Edmonson, Elliott, Jackson, Knott, Leslie, Letcher, Magoffin, Menifee, Metcalfe, Owsley, Perry and Russell. In at least four of these counties papers have been published at one time or another, which would reduce the number without a printing press to eight. The list is made up with a solitary exception of mountain counties, the most of which are sparsely settled and without railroad, telegraph or telephone facilities. Of the newspapers established in the mountains it may be said that they compare favorably with those in other parts of the state. Many of them are neat in appearance, well edited and up-to-date in every respect. With the further development of the mountain country, much of which, though rich in resources, is almost a terra incognita, there will be more papers and better papers. In the meantime those who are over anxious to criticize should at least revise their figures when dealing with Kentucky affairs. When the situation is carefully considered the wonder is that there are so many papers instead of so few. Many of the rural journals in Kentucky are situated in most unpromising fields and are sustained only by the hard work and close economy of their publishers. There is no general advertising law in Kentucky, and the state and county patronage accorded the average weekly paper in the course of a year would not pay the expenses of one week's issue. All country merchants do not appreciate the advantages of advertising "by a large majority," and the patronage that is extended in many small towns is looked upon as a sort of charity work "to help the editor along," rather than an effort to boom or bring business. The man who undertakes the establishment of a paper in the mountains must be a man with a large stock of nerve and industry. He must be patient and courageous. He must needs have hope and health and a heart for any fate. Then if he be of small aspirations and small appetite, and if he possess a modicum of brains he will probably succeed. Probably not many men have these qualifications and that may explain why there are so many counties without newspapers.—Courier-Journal.

I have given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a fair test and consider it one of the very best remedies for croup that I have ever found. One dose has always been sufficient, although I use it freely. Any cold my children contract yields very readily to this medicine. I can conscientiously recommend it for croup and colds in children.—Geo. S. Worley, Clerk of the Circuit Court, Ferdinand, Fla. Sold by J. T. Day.

Noted Joe Stamper Caught.

Deputy U. S. Marshal J. C. Morgan arrested Joe Stamper, one of the most noted criminals in Kentucky, last week. He first located him in Estill county, and after chasing him through Owsley and Clay found him sitting by a comfortable fire in Jackson county. Stamper has always said he would never be captured alive. Morgan knowing his danger prepared accordingly, and as he entered the house Stamper recognized him and instantly sprang at him with a dirk knife when Morgan fired. Stamper's wife was between them and his gun was discharged at the prisoner's feet.

George Shelton, whom Morgan had deputized, at this moment struck Stamper over the arm with a club and disarming him, after a hard struggle he gave up. Stamper, it is said, has been indicted in the Owsley county court for bigamy, and there are two indictments in Clay against him for malicious shooting and confederating.

If you are a true friend of the "dear old Herald," and we have always so considered you, you will now go to work and help us to get the 1,000 new subscribers which we want added to our list within the next thirty days. Go tell your neighbor the good news and induce him to subscribe. Tell your friends everywhere, and get them to take the paper at FIFTY CENTS A YEAR.

Fakirs at Work.

The news comes from Hyden that the reports of alleged killings in Leslie county being almost daily sent out from Pineville, Middlesboro and Barbourville are fakes pure and simple. The report that eight men were killed on Sandy Fork, that county, and that Len Wallace and the Tepie boys had killed each other, were false in fact and circumstance.

Jailer Joe Maggard took High Fee to Booneville, where he is to be tried on a writ of habeas corpus, for the alleged killing of Robert Asher.

Bound Over for Mail Robbery.

The examining trial of Floyd Barnett and Job Miller, who attempted to rob the Hindman mail carrier, George Noble, was held before United States Commissioner J. B. Marcum, of Jackson, who held them to the Federal grand jury, and failing to make bail they were sent to jail. The prompt capture of the offenders by Marshal G. W. Drake makes that vigilant officer quite a nice little sum if they are convicted as for United States mail robbers a standing reward of $250 each is offered by the government and promptly paid upon conviction. Mr. Drake therefore feels quite elated over his successful apprehension, which he says is bound to result in a conviction.

If YOU happen to be one of those who owe this office, PLEASE come in and pay us. To you it may seem but a small amount, but if all will pay us what they owe we can make the paper a great deal better and not be worried to death over the debts we owe. Come in today and pay up; don't delay it. If Noted Mail Robber Escapes.

Frank Murphy, the noted mail robber, broke jail at Salyersville on Tuesday night of last week by removing the stove pipe and crawling through the flue to liberty. He was charged with robbing the Salyersville and Mary mail a week prior. Frank Murphy is a brother of Logan Murphy, who murdered his father in Magoffin county, and was sentenced to be hanged, and lynched by a mob in Mt. Sterling, Ky., while awaiting his execution for murdering an inmate of the Mt. Sterling jail. Murphy is still at large.

Just before the late November election some one took from my horse a pair of fair leather saddle bags. Through a friend I have located them, and if they are returned where I can get them that will be the end of it. If not, some one will have to prove the possession. If.

R.I.P.A.N.S.
Packed Without Glass. TEN FOR FIVE CENTS.
This special form of Ripans Tablets is prepared from the original prescription, but more economically put up for the purpose of meeting the universal modern demand for a low price.
WATER CURE.—Take one at meal or bed time or whenever you feel poorly. Swallow it whole, with or without a mouthful of water. They cure all stomach troubles, banish pain, induce sleep, prolong life. An invaluable tonic. Best Spring Medicine. No matter what the matter, one will do you good. One gives relief, a cure will result if directions are followed.
The five-cent packages are not yet to be had of all dealers, although it is probable that almost any druggist will obtain a supply when requested by a customer to do so; but in any case a single carton, containing ten tablets, will be sent, postage paid, to any address for five cents in stamps forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., 249 E. 14th St., New York. Until the goods are so easily introduced to the trade, agents and dealers will be supplied at a price which will allow them a fair margin of profit, viz: 1 dozen cartons for $3.00—by mail $4.00. 12 dozen (12 cartons) for $24.00—by mail $28.00. 24 dozen (24 cartons) for $48.00—by mail $56.00. Cash with the order in every case, and freight or express charges at the buyer's cost.

If Its Worth Printing the Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal Will Print It.

And Every Democrat, Every Republican, Every Man, Woman or Child who can read will want to read it.

"Meantime, we prefer to take our chance with the conservative Democrats, fighting within the party, to reform it of its excesses, and to restore it to its better uses, than to pursue an ignis fatuus which, if it had been more real, would have resulted in the election, instead of the defeat, of the free silver fusion in 1896, and which, with singular unanimity, the voters have refused to follow."
The COURIER-JOURNAL is a Democrat, not a Republican; and it will under no circumstances or conditions pursue a policy whose only effect is to continue the Republican party in power.

THE TWICE-A-WEEK COURIER-JOURNAL is a Democratic paper, of six or eight pages, issued Wednesday and Saturday of each week. The Wednesday issue prints all the Clean News, and the Saturday issue prints Stories, Miscellaneous, Poetry, all matters of special interest in the home. It is edited by Henry Watterson.
